Young carers and sibling carers help to care for an ill, frail or disabled relative or friend who could not manage without them.

What we offer:

- Clubs where you can have fun, meet others in the same situation and make new friends
- Peer Mentoring - young carers offer advice to other young carers
- Facebook groups
- Quarterly e-magazine edited by young and sibling carers
- Workshops on illnesses, disabilities and addictions
- Expert support for all caring situations
- Help with learning new skills, education and training
- Opportunity to apply for an NHS carers' grant to go on a trip or activity
- Welfare and benefits advice
- Family time at our carers cafés

We hold clubs every other month where you can have fun and be supported with your health and wellbeing in a safe, friendly environment.

We hold clubs in Kempston. At the clubs you can be active, chill out or do homework. Each club also has a theme, such as Being Healthy and Social skills and Friendships.

The Facts

Young and sibling carers may experience isolation, difficulties coping at home, problems at school, and a lack of understanding about illnesses, disabilities or addictions.

They may also have increased maturity, a higher tolerance of others and enhanced communication skills. There are an estimated 700,000 young carers in the UK.
